Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The script is cursive and difficult to decipher due to the angle and fading.

Handwritten text on the lower half of the page, continuing the cursive script. The text is also difficult to read due to the same factors as the upper section.

My Dear Mother

I received your letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you and to hear that you were all well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work.

The following list of names is given in the order in which they were received by the Board of Directors of the State of New York on the 22nd day of June 1875.
