Handwritten text in Persian script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a cursive style and covers most of the page. It appears to be a record or a letter, possibly related to the library or archival collection mentioned in the header.

Handwritten text on a piece of yellowed, lined paper, written in cursive. The text is oriented vertically but appears to be written horizontally on the page. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear. The text is mostly illegible due to the cursive style and the angle of the page. Some words are difficult to decipher, but they appear to be a mix of names and possibly dates or numbers. The text is written in a single column, filling most of the page.
