

Handwritten text at the top center of the page.

Handwritten text in the upper section, appearing to be a header or introductory lines.

Main body of handwritten text on the page, consisting of approximately 15 lines of cursive script.

The following is a list of the books which have been received from the National Library of Israel during the year 1958. The books are listed in the order in which they were received. The list includes the title of the book, the author, the publisher, and the date of publication. The list is arranged in alphabetical order of the author's name. The list is divided into two sections: the first section contains the names of the authors, and the second section contains the titles of the books. The list is intended to provide a complete record of the books received during the year 1958.

1887
JAN 20

Dear Mother
I have just received your letter of the 15th and was glad to hear from you and all the family.
I am well and hope this finds you all the same. I have not much news to write at present.
The weather is very cold here now but I hope it will soon improve. I have been thinking of writing to you for some time but have been so busy that I could not find time. I have just now some time to write a few lines to you. I am lovingly
Your affectionate son
John Smith

1896
25

1896
The weather is very warm and the crops are growing well. The children are very happy and the school is in session.
I am writing you to let you know how I am getting on.
I hope you are well and happy.
I will write again
soon.
Love,
John

1896
25