Since 1998 Mosiashvili has various personal exhibitions, he's paintings are the part of personal collections, art galleries and museums in different countries

Serious painting is not obliged to react momentarily to the extreme changing world – but paintings by Mosiashvili pay artistic attention to the fundamental solving of life's problems. His creatively, expressed in a bright, wise and sort of naive manner of painting, is aimed first of all at love for the human being, free of any exaggerated artistic devices. Being still young enough, he also reflects soul in his paintings. .

Levan Mosiashvili was awarded with different rewards in France and also at international exhibition-competitions abroad.

He lives in France and for the most part his exhibitions take place there. Levan Mosiashvili's exhibitions were held in other countries as well.
